Welcome to our Pub!

The Pearson's Arms is a warm, welcoming, family-run gem that celebrates everything local. Born and raised in the town, we bring that deep rooted pride into everything we do. From the carefully curated local produce on the menu to the expertly crafted cocktails and handpicked wines behind the bar.

We're more than just a place for a drink; it's where friends gather, where newcomers become regulars, and where live music fills the air with energy and soul. Whether it's a cosy midweek pint, a lively weekend cocktail, or a relaxed evening soaking up great music, our pub is the place to be. Independent, passionate, and full of character, just like the town it calls home.

The Pearson's Arms originally stood on Tower Parade in the 1830s. It moved to its location near Horsebridge Road in 1840s. The book "Whitstable and Herne Bay Pubs by Johnny Horner" refers to the "Pearsons Arms" in its current location as once being called the "Whitstable Arms."

At The Pearson's Arms, we pride ourselves on sourcing the freshest local produce to create a menu that celebrates the rich flavours of our region. Our chefs work closely with local farmers & fishermen to ensure that every dish is crafted from the finest ingredients available, reflecting the bounty of the nearby land and sea. From succulent seafood to vibrant seasonal vegetables, each plate is a testament to our commitment to quality & sustainability.
